Trail Ride with non-judged obstacles and Cookout to follow

Cost: Day ~ $10 for CVPHC members; $20 for non-members
Weekend ~ $20 for CVPHC members; $30 for non-members

Learn what judges look for in scoring horse and rider maneuvering obstacles in competitive trail events. Learn about different competitive and judged trail events. Try working several obstacles on the trail ride after the discussion or simply enjoy over 12 miles of multi-use trails at your leisure throughout the park. Front shoes or hoof boots recommended.

No alcohol on the trails. Use of any alcoholic beverages is prohibited in state parks.

Current Negative Coggins required at entrance. Primitive camping is available at the parking area starting Friday, April 9th. Water, fire rings, and a port-o-john will be available on site. Please clean up after you and your horse. All dogs must be on a leash. Cookout will follow after the trail ride Saturday. You are on your own for all other meals. Don't forget your chair(s).

Please RSVP by April 5th to Kim at (757) 536-7888 or call with your questions.
