

CVPHC Information

Central Virginia Paint Horse Club strives to establish, promote, and expand the awareness of the Paint Horse breed in our home state. To serve our members in a fair and timely manner and create an environment that fosters good sportsmanship and courtesy to all. We will serve the Paint Horse breed by creating an ideal of good horsemanship.

We value our members and will offer accessibility and encouragement to achieve shared goals and objectives. To be aware of the needs, challenges, and opportunities of this club and give assistance and direction to help it grow. Through sound financial policies and careful long range planning we will increase opportunities to make an impact on the equine industry in Virginia.

CVPHC 2011 Membership Fees:

Individual - $20, Family or Farm - $35, Youth - $10, Youth Term - $50

Membership is open and available to all who share our passion for the American Paint Horse. There are no residency or horse ownership requirements. The success of our club depends on membership support and participation. Consider becoming a member today. Membership rates are reasonable and all fees are used to support the club and coordinate shows, trail rides, year end award programs, and administration.

Membership is the best way to stay in touch with paint horse activities in Virginia. See old friends and make new ones. Enjoy a variety of events...stallion service auction, breeders futurity, open futurity, Virginia bred program, APHA approved shows, open shows, organized trail rides and more!!!

All CVPHC members receive free home delivery of the Virginia Horse Journal.
